The exercise of options by insiders alongside this financing reflects ongoing confidence in the Company’s direction and the value we are building. As we move forward, our focus remains on expanding production at Pinargozu and advancing development at Sarikaya in a disciplined manner.

This financing provides additional flexibility to execute on our near-term plans, and we will continue to align our capital strategy with operational progress. Our objective is to build on current momentum, increase production and cash flow, and position the Company for the next phase of growth.”
